WORKING TOGETHER

The DFV Local Link is a service in the Redlands and Logan region, provided by the regional domestic and family violence specialists service, The Centre for Women & Co.

It offers one-point of referral for patients affected by domestic and family violence, as well as advice and support for general practices to enable better identification and responses to domestic and family violence.

DFV SPECIALISTS

Patients are eligible for referral to the DFV Local Link if they are affected by domestic and family violence.

General Practice staff can refer to the DFV Local Link who will provide:

- safety planning and risk assessment
- links to appropriate supports/services
- case consults
- implementation of DFV best practice in primary health care
- referral outcomes for patients.
